HARYANA GOVERNMENT
SOCIAL JUSTICE & EMPOWERMENT DEPARTMENT

Notification
The 24th November, 2015

No.1150/SW(4)/2015.— In partial modification of the Haryana Government Notification No. 908-S(4) dated 27/28 July, 2010 the Governor of Haryana is pleased to make the amendment in the scheme namely “Scheme of State Awards for Older Persons” to encourage and honour the persons of the age of 60 years and above and Panchayats, NGOs, Old Age Homes, Day Care Centres, Painters, Sculptures, Musicians/Singers and Sports Persons which have done pioneering work for the welfare of older persons.

Aims & Objectives

Due to increase in the expectancy of life, the percentage of persons above the age of 60 years among the total population is increasing. The Joint family system has completely broken down and there is a marked trend of withdrawal of family support. The total population of Haryana State as per 2001 census is 2.11 crores out of which about 6.8% of the population belongs to 80+ age group. This may further go up. It is the need of the hour to create an awareness in the society about taking up the case of elderly persons who have given long life service to the society. There is a need to create such favorable conditions so that the senior citizens could spend rest of their life with dignity and to avail the benefit of their vast experience in various fields of the society.

Facilities being provided presently

The Government of Haryana making all efforts for providing social security and welfare of the Senior Citizens in the State. The Government is running Vikas Puttar Yug Purush Chaudhary Bansi Lal Home for the Aged and Infirm at Rewari which has a capacity of 100 inmates. In addition, NGOs are also running Old Age Homes and Day Care Centres in various districts. At these Centres/Homes facilities like boarding lodging medical care and indoor games etc. are provided to the senior citizens.

1st October would be of each year observed as International Day of the Elderly. As people across the Country tend to live increasingly longer lives, our society has a stake in encouraging and easing a productive, active and healthy ageing process. The whole nation stand to gain from an empowered older generation with the potential to make tremendous contributions to the development process and to the work of building more productive, peaceful and sustainable society.

New Ventures to further the Aims of the Scheme

Keeping in view the above background and being the nodal department for the welfare of senior citizens Social Welfare and Empowerment Department has been celebrating the occasion every year by organizing a series of seminars/programmes.
